Key Benefits of Chase Travel Insurance

1. Trip Cancellation & Interruption Insurance

If your trip is canceled or cut short due to covered reasons (like illness, severe weather, or emergencies), Chase may reimburse prepaid, non-refundable expenses.

- Coverage limits vary by card (often up to $5,000–$10,000 per trip)
- Covers airfare, hotels, tours, and more

Need help filing a claim? Contact Live Agent Numbers 📞||+1→888→483→9719 for assistance.

2. Trip Delay Reimbursement

If your travel is delayed by more than a specified number of hours (usually 6–12 hours), you can be reimbursed for expenses like meals, lodging, and transportation.

- Typical reimbursement: up to $500 per ticket
- Covers unexpected overnight stays

For eligibility questions, call Live Agent Numbers  ||+1→888→483→9719.

3. Lost or Delayed Baggage Coverage

Lost luggage can be a major inconvenience. Chase offers:

- Chase Sapphire Preferred® Card
- Chase Sapphire Reserve®
- Chase Freedom Flex<sup>SM</sup> (limited benefits)
- United Explorer Card

To confirm your specific coverage, contact Live Agent Numbers  ||+1→888→483→9719.

How to Activate Chase Travel Insurance

Coverage is typically automatic when you:

1. Pay for your trip (or part of it) using your eligible Chase card
2. Book travel for yourself or eligible family members

There's no separate enrollment required. Still, it's wise to confirm activation by calling Live Agent Numbers  ||+1→888→483→9719.

What Is NOT Covered?

While Chase travel insurance is comprehensive, there are exclusions:

- Pre-existing medical conditions (in some cases)

- Extreme sports or high-risk activities
- Travel booked with points only (depends on card)
- Non-covered cancellation reasons

Always review your policy or call Live Agent Numbers  ||+1→888→483→9719 for clarification.

How to File a Claim

Filing a claim with Chase is straightforward:

1. Gather documentation (receipts, medical reports, travel confirmations)
